The Pearson's as Communities

The family were recorded as owning a smallholding in 1881 and it can be inferred that they entered the land market after the death of their father, William Stanley Pearson, in June 1921. The Pearson's were notable in the area for their land holdings.

PART 1

The origins of the called-out in south Offaly are murky. It is possible that an active Irish Volunteers group had been present in the area, and that it was this group which was called out in response to the violence of 1920. The local IRA had been active in the area since before 1920, with a number of members of the family involved in the movement. The local IRA was affiliated to the Irish Republican Brotherhood (IRB) and the Irish Republican Army (IRA).

The Pearson's were known to be members of the Irish Republican Brotherhood (IRB) and the Irish Republican Army (IRA). William Stanley Pearson, the father of the Pearson family, was a member of the IRB and the IRA. The Pearson family were known to be active in the IRB and the IRA, and were involved in the calling-out of the local IRA in 1920.

The Pearson family were involved in the calling-out of the local IRA in 1920. William Stanley Pearson, the father of the Pearson family, was a member of the IRB and the IRA. The Pearson family were known to be active in the IRB and the IRA, and were involved in the calling-out of the local IRA in 1920.

The origins of the called-out in south Offaly are murky. It is possible that an active Irish Volunteers group had been present in the area, and that it was this group which was called out in response to the violence of 1920. The local IRA had been active in the area since before 1920, with a number of members of the family involved in the movement. The local IRA was affiliated to the Irish Republican Brotherhood (IRB) and the Irish Republican Army (IRA).

The Pearson's were known to be members of the Irish Republican Brotherhood (IRB) and the Irish Republican Army (IRA). William Stanley Pearson, the father of the Pearson family, was a member of the IRB and the IRA. The Pearson family were known to be active in the IRB and the IRA, and were involved in the calling-out of the local IRA in 1920.

The Pearson family were involved in the calling-out of the local IRA in 1920. William Stanley Pearson, the father of the Pearson family, was a member of the IRB and the IRA. The Pearson family were known to be active in the IRB and the IRA, and were involved in the calling-out of the local IRA in 1920.

The origins of the called-out in south Offaly are murky. It is possible that an active Irish Volunteers group had been present in the area, and that it was this group which was called out in response to the violence of 1920. The local IRA had been active in the area since before 1920, with a number of members of the family involved in the movement. The local IRA was affiliated to the Irish Republican Brotherhood (IRB) and the Irish Republican Army (IRA).

The Pearson's were known to be members of the Irish Republican Brotherhood (IRB) and the Irish Republican Army (IRA). William Stanley Pearson, the father of the Pearson family, was a member of the IRB and the IRA. The Pearson family were known to be active in the IRB and the IRA, and were involved in the calling-out of the local IRA in 1920.

The Pearson family were involved in the calling-out of the local IRA in 1920. William Stanley Pearson, the father of the Pearson family, was a member of the IRB and the IRA. The Pearson family were known to be active in the IRB and the IRA, and were involved in the calling-out of the local IRA in 1920.

The origins of the called-out in south Offaly are murky. It is possible that an active Irish Volunteers group had been present in the area, and that it was this group which was called out in response to the violence of 1920. The local IRA had been active in the area since before 1920, with a number of members of the family involved in the movement. The local IRA was affiliated to the Irish Republican Brotherhood (IRB) and the Irish Republican Army (IRA).

The Pearson's were known to be members of the Irish Republican Brotherhood (IRB) and the Irish Republican Army (IRA). William Stanley Pearson, the father of the Pearson family, was a member of the IRB and the IRA. The Pearson family were known to be active in the IRB and the IRA, and were involved in the calling-out of the local IRA in 1920.

The Pearson family were involved in the calling-out of the local IRA in 1920. William Stanley Pearson, the father of the Pearson family, was a member of the IRB and the IRA. The Pearson family were known to be active in the IRB and the IRA, and were involved in the calling-out of the local IRA in 1920.

The origins of the called-out in south Offaly are murky. It is possible that an active Irish Volunteers group had been present in the area, and that it was this group which was called out in response to the violence of 1920. The local IRA had been active in the area since before 1920, with a number of members of the family involved in the movement. The local IRA was affiliated to the Irish Republican Brotherhood (IRB) and the Irish Republican Army (IRA).

The Pearson's were known to be members of the Irish Republican Brotherhood (IRB) and the Irish Republican Army (IRA). William Stanley Pearson, the father of the Pearson family, was a member of the IRB and the IRA. The Pearson family were known to be active in the IRB and the IRA, and were involved in the calling-out of the local IRA in 1920.

The Pearson family were involved in the calling-out of the local IRA in 1920. William Stanley Pearson, the father of the Pearson family, was a member of the IRB and the IRA. The Pearson family were known to be active in the IRB and the IRA, and were involved in the calling-out of the local IRA in 1920.

The origins of the called-out in south Offaly are murky. It is possible that an active Irish Volunteers group had been present in the area, and that it was this group which was called out in response to the violence of 1920. The local IRA had been active in the area since before 1920, with a number of members of the family involved in the movement. The local IRA was affiliated to the Irish Republican Brotherhood (IRB) and the Irish Republican Army (IRA).

The Pearson's were known to be members of the Irish Republican Brotherhood (IRB) and the Irish Republican Army (IRA). William Stanley Pearson, the father of the Pearson family, was a member of the IRB and the IRA. The Pearson family were known to be active in the IRB and the IRA, and were involved in the calling-out of the local IRA in 1920.

The Pearson family were involved in the calling-out of the local IRA in 1920. William Stanley Pearson, the father of the Pearson family, was a member of the IRB and the IRA. The Pearson family were known to be active in the IRB and the IRA, and were involved in the calling-out of the local IRA in 1920.